

“Building a Culture of Peace Program”

the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, September 20th, 2017

The world will be celebrating the International Day of Peace on September 21st. The United Nations General Assembly has declared this as a day devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, both within and among all nations and peoples. This year, the United Nations theme will be “Together for Peace: Respect, Safety and Dignity for All.” In association with the Peace Laureate’s Department of Education, Children of the Earth, an international UN-based organization and the Institute of One Humanity and Sustainable Peace with the Jagiellonian University in Krakow will be hosting the event where both academic discussions as well as student workshops will be held to explore this most relevant subject for our time.

We envision exploring together subjects such as Peace-building, Creating a Culture of Peace, Ethics and Social Action. You are invited to attend and take part in the various activities we have planned.
